

Go Zero, Danube (Croatia)

Beschreibung, Leistungen, Leitung

"Go Zero, Danube!" is a youth exchange on waste reduction in the Danube region. Together, we are going to find out more about the challenges of waste in our countries as well as about interesting solutions and sustainable alternatives, we are going to dig into water protection and get to know innovative entrepreneurs who can inspire us to make a change.

We offer 4 exchanges, you can participate in one of them. This time we will meet in a little eco-farm in Croatia!

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

15 young people between 18 and 23 years from Baden Württemberg, Croatia, Bulgaria, Romania and Ukraine.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

50€ for Germans, 30€ for other Danube citizens.

The housing, food and travels will be covered by the project. We can reimburse trips of up to 170€ (depending on the country of origin). You will travel together with your national group.

IS THERE ANY PARTICIPATION CRITERIA?

Yes - just a few:

- you are between 18 and 23 years old
- you are interested in waste reduction
- you live in one of the following countries/regions: Baden Württemberg, Croatia, Romania, Bulgaria, Ukraine.
- you fill out the registration form

HOW TO REGISTER?

The participation deadline is on the 19th of September. Just drop an email to t.bouille@starkmacher.eu and you will get further information.

We are looking forward to hearing from you!
